Snakes Numerous in Idaho.

Pennsylvania, one of the most prolific sections for rattlers, has at least one large snakeskin tannery and keeps hosts of people slaughtering rattlesnakes. Idaho, however, is the banner rattlesnake section of the country. Idaho has great ridges of rocks, in which are deep bowls, cracks and caves. Herein rattlers breed by the eternal thousands and offer a vast industry for rattler harvesters.

KANSAS WOMAN BURIED HERE

The Family Resided in Jasper Twenty Years Ago.

E. G. Osborn, now of Topeka, Kansas, brought the body of his wife here last Saturday for burial. Mr. Osborn was in the jewelry business here about 20 years ago. He was located with H. F. Pitts when the Pitts drug store occupied the building now occupied by J. L. Shields. Mr. Osborn was accompanied by his two sons. The burial took place in the Brethren Cemetery on the base line Saturday morning, the body being laid by the side of a little daughter who died in infancy.

Ida Leverna Wilson was born October 24, 1870, at Madison, Kans., where she resided until her father moved to Carytown, Jasper County, Mo. In 1893 she was united in marriage to E. G. Osborn of Chicago, Ill., where they resided until their removal to Jasper, living here two years and then going to Kansas. Her late home was at Topeka where she passed away December 23, 1919, after two years illness.

Deceased is survived by her husband and two sons. The sons are Luther E. Osborn of Emporia, Kans., and Allen H. Osborn of Topeka. Her father, Wm. M. Wilson, and brother, Lewis of Ozark, Kans., and another brother Allen Wilson of Augusta, Ga., also survive.

Mr. Osborn and his two sons wish to extend their grateful appreciation to friends here for kindness and sympathy extended in their bereavement.

Hadn't Thought of That.

A man, unable to choose a wife from three girls whom he admired, sent duplicate letters of proposal to all, intending to marry the one who assented first. The trouble that he did not foresee was that the two too-late ones would sue for breach of promise.

Newspaper Changes.

Lewis Moore, who edited and published the Border Telephone at Hume the past 25 years or more, has retired and turned that lively little sheet over to his brother, who was raised in the office and trained under Lewis' master hand. Young Mr. Moore seems to take hold in a most capable manner. We are sure the newspaper fraternity of Southwest Missouri are a unit in wishing them both success in their future endeavors.

J. H. Heath & Son last week sold the Golden City Herald to John P. Gilbreath. Mr. Heath, sr., has been at the head of the Herald thirty-odd years past and has become known to a wide circle of readers and the newspaper fraternity. Mr. Gilbreath is a young man and a good printer and will no doubt give Golden City a good newspaper and we hope he will receive the support he deserves. He served in Uncle Sam's Army during the war.

Sturdy Old Italian Dame.

The women of the lower classes in Italy are indefatigable workers. They have to be, and do all sorts of laborious and unwomanly tasks, according to our American ideas. In fact, the traveler in Italy is almost convinced that the women do all the work, while the men do the talking. Age is no barrier to feminine activity, for one old crone at least eighty, to judge from her wrinkled face and tottering steps, was photographed carrying an immense basket of fagots, all alone, across one of the busiest streets in lovely Lugano in Italy.
